

Kids / Teen:

How do I book a birthday party?

Please visit our Birthday Party Page or give one of our expert Party Planners a call at 732-577-8200 ext. 382.

What is required to book a party?

For most of our parties, we require a $250 deposit. For the VIP Ultra party we require a $600 deposit.

Do you provide invitations for guests?

Once your party is booked, your Party Planner will send you the evite for you to send out to all of your guests. Hard copy invitations are also available upon request.

Does the Guest of Honor receive anything additional?

The Guest of Honor receives extra tickets as well as $25 on their game card.

What are the food / drink options for a birthday party?

All parties come with pizza, pitchers, and cupcakes. Upgrades are available upon request.

What is the difference between a party attendant and a party host?

A party attendant will be in your private room setting up, serving your food, and cleaning up. A party host will gather all of the kids and bring them around the park to all of the rides and attractions included in your package.

Are there certain height requirements for the rides and attractions?

Please visit our Fun and Games Page for all of the height requirements for the rides and attractions.

Can I bring my own decorations?

The best part about having a party at iPlay America is we do all of the work for you! We provide Happy Birthday décor, plates, cups, napkins, along with red, white, and blue balloons. We do offer themed items for an additional cost. If you would still like to bring your own, décor there is a $25 fee.

How long do we have the private party room?

For most of our parties, you will have your party room for 45 minutes. If you are planning to book the VIP Ultra package, you will get 2.5 hours in a private party suite!

Is my ride band valid after the party?

Every ride band is valid for the day of the party. We encourage our guests to stay as long as they would like to enjoy all iPlay America has to offer!

Will someone call and confirm final details before the party?

Our party planners will reach out 10-12 days prior to your party to confirm final details.

Is my deposit refundable if I decide to cancel my party?

As long as you cancel with a minimum 2 weeks' notice, we will be able to refund your deposit.